

YOU ARE INVITED TO
THE LURIE INSTITUTE FOR DISABILITY POLICY

---

Annual Distinguished Lecture

Featured Speaker

ROSALIND W. PICARD, ScD, FIEEE

---

“Adventures in Developing Technology for Autism”

Tuesday, November 29, 2016

6:00 p.m.

Reception to follow

Brandeis University
The Heller School for Social Policy and Management
Zinner Forum
415 South Street
Waltham, Mass.

RSVP by November 14, 2016, to LurieLectures@brandeis.edu
or by telephone at 781-736-3799

If you need disability accommodations to participate, please inform us with your RSVP.

THE LURIE INSTITUTE FOR DISABILITY POLICY

The mission of the Lurie Institute for Disability Policy is to lead research and training initiatives that promote effective, efficient policies to improve the well-being of children and adults with disabilities and their caregiving families across the lifespan.

Brandeis University