

THE LURIE INSTITUTE FOR DISABILITY POLICY presents...

Winner of 10 US Film Festival Audience Awards!

An award winning Argentine film about a national tragedy seen through the lens of a woman with Down Syndrome

Friday, February 8, 2013

7pm

Mandel Center for Humanities Atrium

In ANITA, acclaimed Argentine filmmaker Marcos Carnevale tells the remarkable story of a young woman with Down Syndrome whose routine life in Buenos Aires is tragically disrupted by the horrific 1994 bombing of the Argentine Israelite Mutual Association. As Anita wanders through the city following the attack she not only learns to care for herself, but touches the lives of those around her.

A panel discussion about Down Syndrome will follow this inspirational film.

ANITA is presented as part of deis IMPACT!

Exploring Social Justice on Campus, in Waltham & Around the World

go.brandeis.edu/deisimpact

FEB. 1-11, 2013

co-sponsored by The Nathan and Toby Starr Center on Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities