

The Lurie Institute for Disability Policy

invites you to a screening of the film

The Sandy Houghton Story:

An Inspirational Journey

An Original Documentary

Friday, January 25th

6pm

Heller School for Social Policy and Management
Brandeis University

Room G-4

The Sandy Houghton Story:

An Inspirational Journey recounts the personal, professional and emotional barriers that self-advocate Sandy Houghton encountered as a person with cerebral palsy and as a mother of a daughter with a disability, and pieces together the experiences that shaped her life and her work. The documentary film premiered in 2011 in Cambridge, MA at the Kendall Square Cinema to rave reviews. Sandy will be attending the screening and she will be available to answer questions following the film.

This film is co-sponsored by the Massachusetts
Developmental Disabilities
Council